

NORTHWEST TRAVELER

November 6, 2013

5 cozy cold-weather getaways

Posted by Brian J. Cantwell

As cold weather arrives and winds whistle and whirl, anyone looking for a weekend getaway often has “cozy” among the criteria. Here are 5 cozy getaways around Western Washington (and it’s a good time to enjoy low-season rates).

5. Iron Springs Resort

This historical collection of bluff-top Mocrecks Beach-area cabins in Grays Harbor County underwent a major makeover in recent years, so the original 1940s look is fresh but the sandy Pacific beach is still classic. Think wood stoves and Adirondack chairs, and razor-clam digs when the season’s right.